Nashville Dance Weekend – Music City Masquerade – October 27-29

Getting To Know You

Fred Kolchin

Fred is an item manager at Redstone Arsenal and holds a BS in Communications from Towson University in Baltimore, MD. He began dancing at the church at Burritt Museum in 1990. He and his wife, Linda, attend Huntsville contra dances regularly and they have also danced in Nashville, Asheville, Chattanooga, Sewanee, Mentone and Birmingham. He says that he used to go to punk clubs in Baltimore years ago and “laughed while watching people slam dance.” When asked what he particularly likes about contra dancing, he replied, “I like the music and dancing fast.”

Besides dancing he has attended a few hundred concerts – everything from Merle Haggard to Marilyn Manson. He enjoys tennis and traveling. He and Linda have been to Mexico, Spain, Chile and Ecuador.

Dustin Bruce Ford

Bruce is a junior at Asbury College studying English, Classical Languages, and Philosophy. He enjoys reading and hanging out and especially enjoys reading an unjustly neglected writer, G. K. Chesterton. His parents live in Ardmore and his girl friend is a student at UAH, so we are privileged to see him dancing when he is in town.

He began contra dancing earlier this year and thinks that it is a lot of fun but he says that “it was more exercise than he’d gotten in years.” He also enjoys meeting interesting people.

He has not ventured to a dance weekend yet, but he and his girlfriend have taken some swing lessons and he would like to learn to play a folk instrument like the banjo or fife. Watch out – one of the local bands will be picking you up as soon as you are proficient.

This And That

Mark Mohon, NACDS President, wants to announce a steering committee meeting for 5:00 PM on November 18 at Faith Presbyterian Church prior to the regular Saturday night dance. This meeting is to discuss and further plan our big Blue Moon Dance Weekend in May and our December Holiday Dance.

On November 12 the Birmingham dance group will sponsor a Sunday evening concert featuring John McCutcheon. John is known around the world as a powerful folksinger, songwriter, storyteller, and master of the hammer dulcimer, guitar, banjo, fiddle, autoharp, mountain dulcimer and jew harp. The concert is at the Birmingham Botanical Gardens at 7:00 PM and the cost is $15. Check <http://folkmusic.com/> for more details.

Random Thoughts

Life is too short to dance with ugly men...however, if the ratio is 2-1 you may have to sacrifice. I think that is why they dim the lights!
